Palm Beach County Supervisor of Elections Launches
New Mobile App Ahead of 2026 General Election

New “Vote Palm Beach” app puts trusted election information and convenient voter tools right at your fingertips

PALM BEACH COUNTY, FL -- There's an app for that! With the November 3, 2026 General Election just weeks away, Palm Beach County Supervisor of Elections Wendy Sartory Link is making it easier than ever for voters to stay informed, prepared, and Election Ready with the launch of the Election Office's new Vote Palm Beach mobile app, available for download in the Google Play Store and Apple App Store.

The free mobile app puts trusted election information and essential voter resources directly in the hands of Palm Beach County voters, providing convenient, on-the-go access to the tools they need to prepare for and participate in elections.

“Whether you're at home, at work, or on the go, we want to make it as easy as possible for every Palm Beach County voter to access accurate, reliable election information,” said Wendy Sartory Link, Palm Beach County Supervisor of Elections. “With the 2026 General Election approaching, our new mobile app puts another trusted resource right in the palm of your hand. It's all about meeting voters where they are and giving them the tools they need to vote with confidence.”

With the new Vote Palm Beach app, voters can:

- Check their voter information and stay up to date on their registration.
- Find voting locations and plan where to cast their ballot.
- View important election dates and deadlines.
- Track their Vote-by-Mail ballot.
- Access trusted election information directly from the Palm Beach County Supervisor of Elections Office.
- And more!

The app launch builds on the Elections Office's recent website overhaul and introduction of the Palm Beach County Voter Dashboard, which brings essential voter information and services together in one convenient location.

Voters are encouraged to download the free Vote Palm Beach app from the Google Play Store or Apple App Store and explore its features ahead of the upcoming General Election.
