Palm Beach County Supervisor of Elections Mails More Than 596,000 Sample Ballots Ahead of 2026 General Election

Voters are Encouraged to Review Their Sample Ballot and Make a Voting Plan Before Heading to the Polls

PALM BEACH COUNTY, FL -- With the November 3, 2026 General Election approaching, the Palm Beach County Supervisor of Elections Office has mailed more than 596,000 personalized sample ballots to registered voters who have not requested a Vote-by-Mail ballot or to receive their sample ballot by email.

Voters should watch their mailboxes in the coming days for their sample ballot, which provides an opportunity to review the races and questions they will see on their ballot when casting their vote. Voters can also access their personalized sample ballot anytime through the Voter Dashboard at VotePalmBeach.gov.

“With several races and ballot questions for voters to consider in this election, taking a few minutes to review your sample ballot ahead of time can make a big difference,” said Palm Beach County Supervisor of Elections Wendy Sartory Link. “We encourage every voter to come prepared, know their choices, and have a plan to vote. A little preparation helps save time at the polls and makes the voting experience smoother for everyone.”
